Dear Mr. Steigerwald:

Pursuant to the meeting with the Fort Wayne City Council on Tuesday, February 23, 1971, the Fort Wayne Board of Public Health would like to formalize its support of a contractual agreement, under the Interlocal Cooperation Act, to provide any desired public health services to Allen County.

The Fort Wayne Board of Public Health is in complete support of the City Council in its decision to research the possibility of providing public health services on a contractual basis. The Board of Public Health has utilized the Interlocal Cooperation Act for contractual agreements, and can verify this vehicle is an excellent method for providing supplementary or complete public health services where needed or desired.

We would like to express our appreciation for the opportunity of meeting with the City Council on February 23, 1971. If we can be of service to the City Council, in its review of this matter, please contact us at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

A. P. Hattendorf

The term of appointment of Cecil Ellis as director of the Fort Wayne Public Transportation Corporation expired March 1, 1971, and Mr. Ellis informs me he regrets very much he will not be able to serve another term. On behalf of the Council, I want to take this opportunity to publicly thank Mr. Ellis for services rendered.

It now becomes the duty of the Council to appoint another director to serve for a four-year term. I believe the man who could best fill this position is Thomas D. Brown.

Therefore, I move we appoint Mr. Thomas D. Brown to a four-year term to succeed Mr. Ellis as a director of the Fort Wayne Public Transportation Corporation.

Motion was seconded by Councilman Celia Ann Gray and a roll call vote taken as follows:
